BURGLARY AT WEST TORRANCE MARKET
Unknown parties entered the West Torrance Market on Torrance boulevard about 12:30 Monday morning, according to a police report, and carried away 15 cartons of cigarettes, 12 cans of Prince Albert tobacco and a 10-gallon keg of grape juice. The Japanese owner of the market reported a suspicious automobile noted in the vicinity, the ownership of which was traced to a Redondo Beach address.

Ramona Pageant At Hemet April 23

Spanish girls of the tenth annual Ramona Pageant rehearse in the rock patio at Soboba Hot Springs near Ramona's home. Left to right: Hattie Lawell, as "Margaret," Nafeda Hessi and Florence North Muller. Inset: Victor Jory as the Indian hero. The pageant will be staged April 23, 24, 30, May 1, 7 and 8 in the picturesque Ramona Bowl, a modern amphitheatre.

Torrance Day At Historic Hemet Drama

HEMET.—Announcement was made today by Edward Poorman, president and general manager of the tenth annual Ramona pageant at Hemet that Saturday, April 30, has been designated as "Torrance Day" at the spectacular outdoor play given by a cast of more than 200 characters in the beautiful Ramona Bowl in the hills south of Hemet.

Dates for this season's production of this famous Californian drama are Saturday and Sunday afternoons, April 23 and 24, April 30 and May 1 and May 7 and 8, at 3 o'clock.

The Ramona pageant is a colorful, fast-moving dramatization of the immortal novel, Ramona, by Helen Hunt Jackson, and is produced as a non-profit, community enterprise by the people of Hemet and San Jacinto on the very ground that many of the characters of the book actually trod more than half a century ago. Ramona and her ill-fated lover, Alessandro, lived in the San Jacinto Valley and are buried in the little cemetery on the Cahulla Indian reservation south of Hemet.

Leading roles in the play are taken by prominent stars of the stage and screen.

Over 450 Pieces Cake Served at Penney Birthday

The J. C. Penney Company birthday party last Friday was a huge success, and over 450 people were served from the big birthday cake, according to Store Manager Frank Buffington.

There is no depression talk around the Penney store. Quite the contrary, Mr. Buffington states that this month's business so far has exceeded in dollar volume any month since the boom days of December, 1929.

The fourth week's features of the 30th Anniversary sale will be offered the public on Friday morning and include such enticing bargains as: Two for a dollar bedspreads, 12 1/2-cent sunfast and washable cretonnes, 69c bandana and pantie sets, fast-color voids and broadcloths at 17 cents, as well as many other articles equally as attractive in quality and price.

Society Girl Joins Underworld to Save Suitor

"The Wiser Sex" at Local Theater Furious Battle of Wits and Love

The reputed audacious and highly organized underworld is given a dainty swift kick on the shins in "The Wiser Sex," new Paramount feature headlining at the Torrance Theater Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

And it is the alluring and well dressed toe of Claudette Colbert which delivers the kick, just in the nick of time to keep a self-styled tough egg from railroadng her fiancée on a murder charge. Miss Colbert, whose epigonal register has grown by leaps and bounds with "Secrets of a Secretary" and "His Woman," portrays the role of a darling of class, who leaves a vacation in Europe, no telling how many yachts, limousines and liveried servants, to set herself up as a kept woman to meet those people who have just the right kind of evidence to exonerate her fiancée.

Douglas, whom you'll recall if you saw Gloria Swanson's "Tonight or Never," is a crusading attorney, who gets himself put on a torrid spot for being enthusiastic about a city clean-up and rather neglectful of his romance with Miss Colbert, if that could happen.

Lilyan Tashman and William Boyd, a wily pair, if ever there teamed—ones came along, she's up-derailing lip business for this story in an atmosphere of sophistication and ritzy clothes.

The climax is quite suspenseful. For just when you think that Boyd and his "imported" chauffeur have gotten everything under control and the ravishing Miss Colbert's blonde disguise under surveillance for what is to be her "last ride," action reveals just how nicely a female Sherlock can time things when there is vital business, like restoring a lagging romance, at hand.

New Ball Team Starts Season With Two Wins

Torrance Merchants May Become Members Centinela Valley League

Jess Young's recently organized ball team, playing under the name of the Torrance Merchants, has made a fine start on the summer season by taking two games in a row, their first on April 10 from the Juarez club of Long Beach by a score of 5 to 2. This game went ten innings and was hotly contested all the way. The Merchants took the Hawthorne All-Stars on April 17 by a score of 13 to 2.

Next Sunday the Merchants will tangle with the Torrance Bears, stars of the Pueblo, which team has been winning games from all corners for the past year or more. The game will be played on the Pueblo grounds starting at 2 o'clock.

According to Young, an effort is being made to enter the Torrance Merchants in the Centinela League which starts its league season May 1. A meeting will be held Friday evening of this week at El Segundo to discuss the matter when representatives from Torrance, Gardena, Athens, Hawthorne, El Segundo, Lennox, Moneta and Culver City are expected to be present.

Cees Nosed Out In Last Track Meet of Season

After winning all meets during the Marine League track season the Torrance high school class C team was nosed out by Bal last Friday by a very close score. Sumi Ishikawa, captain of the Cees, was the outstanding performer of the day, with a record of 10 feet 7 inches in the pole vault, which tied the Marine League record and established a new record for the local school.

On the varsity side, Torrance lost by a big margin. In the sprints Torrance finished one-two-three in the hundred and placed second and third in the 220, but aside from that they got nowhere. Pete Zamperini, classy half-miler, did not compete, which lost Torrance probably another first, as Pete has shown his heels to the best in the Marines up to date.

Torrance Tennis Teams Win Practice

Torrance high school tennis teams won decisively from Gardena in a practice meet held Friday afternoon. First doubles team was Francis Mowry, Homer Kirkpatrick; second doubles, Ted Merrill and Cornelius Peet; Gene Tolson played for Torrance in the first singles.

The Marine League tennis season will open April 27.

ATTEND MEETING OF GARDENA POST

About 70 members of the American Legion, including the drum corps, will attend a meeting of the Gardena post tonight. The regular meeting will be followed by a social dance and other entertaining features.

of next week the super thriller "Frankenstein" will be at the Redondo for a one-day showing. A notable cast appears in this shocker including Colin Clive, Boris Karloff, Mae Clarke and John Boles.

The Thursday and Friday offering at the Fox Redondo will present a gala combination screen and stage show. On the screen is "After Tomorrow" with Charles Farrell and Marian Nixon, which should prove refreshing in these days of frenzied dramas. A human and tender story of the love of two youngsters for each other and the dirty tricks fate plays on them.

An added feature attraction with this picture on Thursday and Friday will be a spoken drama presentation by the Stockbridge Players, "So This Is Alaska." The Stockbridge Players include in their cast a number of excellent artists. This three-act comedy drama is to be given its premier public showing at the Fox Redondo. There will be no advance in the admissions for this combination show. It will be added both nights at the evening performance only and not during the matinee.
